

Application for a Scholarship to Retreats
Insight Meditation Houston

For Ginger Clarkson – Travis Hicks January 21, 2023 Retreat

Money for retreat scholarships comes from weekly voluntary collections (dana) of the members of the IMH sangha. The following guidelines for retreat scholarships will apply: A scholarship will be for no more than 75% of the cost of the retreat. It will not cover voluntary donations to the teacher (dana). Priority will be given to active members of the sangha who are in financial need. It will not normally be granted to the same person for successive retreats.

Your name _____

E-mail _____

Address _____

Telephone Number _____

Your employment status:

____ full time, ____ part time, ____ unemployed, ____ student ____ retired.

What percentage of retreat costs do you need covered?

____ 25% ____ 50% ____ 75%.

How frequently do you attend the Monday or Tuesday IMH Sangha?

What form of meditation do you practice, and how frequently?

How many retreats have you attended? _____

Where were they?

If you have other information you believe would be helpful to the committee in making its decision, please attach it to this document.

This application must be received for consideration no later than January 5, 2022. Please email the form with the subject line "Scholarship Request" to: meditationhouston@gmail.com or mail it to:

Marilyn Jones, Retreat Registrar, 1820 Bolsover, Houston, TX 77005.

The advisory board will review your application and inform you of its decision two weeks before the beginning of the retreat.